- That a child has one or more unknown parents, which a student or parent may reveal
- Confidential teacher recommendations

Children are considered a vulnerable category under certain data protection laws.

3. Where do we get the Personal Data?

Some information about students is provided by their parents (or other parents). For example, parents provide information about their children when they register/re-enroll their children for school, complete forms on the parent portal, enroll children in co-curricular activities, and communicate with TKS personnel.

Teachers, counselors, school nurses, school administrators, coaches, and other TKS personnel may provide information about students. This may be feedback or comments regarding school work and academic performance, behavior, medical events, schedules, upcoming performances, and other school-related matters.

TKS may get information directly from students themselves, i.e., through communications (email, in-person, virtual, and via phone or text), and by school work or documentation they submit.

In some cases, TKS will receive information about students from third parties. Below are some examples of external sources and the data we may receive:

- Medical service provider at KAUST Health: Health screening results
- Photographers / Videographers hired by TKS: School photos and videos
- Professionals working with your child: With parental consent, assessments, counseling notes, health and/or mental health records may be provided to support students with specific needs.
- Software providers: student progress or completion of homework assignments involving use of software
- Test providers: Assessment results (such as MAP tests)

4. Do I need to provide all of the information requested?

Student data is essential for the school’s operational use. The majority of information parents are requested to provide is mandatory; some may be requested on a voluntary basis. We will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

5. Why do we collect and process the Personal Data?
